CHRONOLOGICAL INDEX–1998

VOLUME 110

Page

✦ January Vol. 110 No. 1

Operationally Oriented Vulnerability Requirements in the Ship Design Process
R. M. Reese, C. N. Calvano, and T. M. Hopkins 19

A New Approach to an Integrated CAD Method for Surface Ship Design
K. T. Tan and T. P. Bligh 35

Naval Ship Design Philosophy Implementation
LCdr. C. A. Whitcomb, USN 49

Towards a Rational Intact Stability Criteria for Naval Ships
Capt. A. J. Brown, USN (Ret.), and Lt. F. Deyback, DCN 65

Variable Pole Flywheel Motor-Generator for Clean Power, UPS and IPS Energy Storage Module Applications
W. Johnson, J. Roesel and R. Morash 79

Marine Applications of Fuel Cells
S. Allen, E. Ashey, D. Gore, J. Woerner and M. Cervi 93

Reexamination of Superconductive Homopolar Motors for Propulsion
J. D. Walters, N. A. Sondergaard, J. Levedahl, D. J. Waltman, E. M. Golda and T. H. Fikse 107

Cryogen Free High Temperature Superconducting Magnets for 94 GHz Gyroklystron-Powered Radar Applications
D. W. Hazelton, B. G. Danly and D. U. Gubser 117

Superconducting Antennas: What Can They Do for the Navy?
A. M. Leese Martin, D. R. Bowling, and M. M. Neel 123

The High Temperature Superconductivity Space Experiment
M. Nisenoff, G. Price, D. U. Gubser, J. C. Ritter and S. A. Wolf 131

Superconducting Magnetic Gradiometers for Underwater Target Detection
T. R. Clem 139

Mid-Term Sealift: Hydrodynamic System Improvements for the Bow and Stern
P. R. Alman, D. N. McCallum and S. C. Fung 151

Using Simulation to Determine the Maneuvering Performance of the WAGB-20
E. J. Lecourt, Jr. 171

Simulation and Testing of the Landing Period Designator (LPD) Helicopter Recovery Aid
B. Ferrier and T. Manning 189

Computer-Controlled Equipment Testing: Speed, Accuracy and Improved Analysis
J. J. Smith and W. C. Greene 207

The Introduction of Programmable Logic Controllers in U.S. Navy Machinery Control Systems
C. M. Anderson, J. E. Greenblatt and K. A. Lively 217

Total Ship Real Time Control
D. W. Geer 225

Development of 21st Century U.S. Navy Berthing in the Era of Acquisition Reform
J. C. Filling, S. Izenson and E. Meere 235

Arsenal Ship Program Certification Plan
S. Arnston, W. Lind, J. J. Turner, W. C. Blaiklock and M. Tedesco 249

Page

Advanced Development and Fleet Needs—A Real-Time Dilemma?
M. Grubb and Dr. A. Skolnick 263

✦ March Vol. 110 No. 2

A-RCI — The Right Way to Submarine Superiority
N.H. Guertin, P.E., R. W. Miller, P.E. 21

Fairing of High Speed Displacement Hull Forms by B-spline Approximation and Fitting
E. Narli and K. Sarıöz 35

Automatic Performance Monitoring Enhances Seawolf Submarine Ship Control Maintainability
R. Hammett, M. Coakley, D. Sevigny, and R. Zamojski 49

Time-Domain Characteristics of Complex Computer Networks
R. A. Holden and R. W. Thomas 61

Extreme Motion Analysis and Simulation for Ship Design and Operations
D. Burton, J. deKat, R. Sheinberg and P. Minnick 73

Centenary of the Destruction of USS Maine
I. S. Hansen and D. M. Wegner 93

✦ May Vol. 110 No. 3

ASNE Day '98 Acknowledgements and Proceedings 19

State of the Society Address 35

Minutes of the Annual ASNE Business Meeting 41

ASNE Day '98 Keynote Addresses 47

"Achieving Battle Force Interoperability" Panel Discussion 59

ASNE Day '98 Luncheon Address 73

ASNE Day '98 Banquet Address 83

Comments and Discussions of ASNE Day '98 Technical Session Papers 109

✦ July Vol. 110 No. 4

Payoffs and Challenges of Human Systems Integration (HIS) Modeling and Simulations in a Virtual Environment
T. B. Malone, C. C. Baker, M. Kirkpatrick, D. E. Anderson, J. R. Bost, C. D. Williams, S. A. Walker and T. H. G. Hu 21

Convenience Food Logistics Model (CFLM)
K. L. Evangelos, B. M. Hill, S. K. Saraf and J. Miller 39

Development of a Family of Commercial Marine Composite Ball Valves
V. Bhasin, D. Conroy and J. Reid 51

Effects of Launching Parameters on the Performance of a Free-Fall Lifeboat
M. R. H. Khondoker 67

Conversion of EX T-AGOS 14
Y. Liou 75

Reducing Maintenance Workload Through Reliability-Centered Maintenance (RCM)
K. S. Jacobs 89

The AEM/S System, a Paradigm-Breaking Mast Goes to Sea
J. L. Benson 99
